PROXIES

Solicitation of Proxies

This Information Circular is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the management of MedMira Inc. (“MedMira” or the “Corporation”) for use at the Annual General Meeting of the holders of Common Shares (the “Shareholders”) on Friday, February 27, 2026 at MedMira Inc., 155 Chain Lake Drive, Suite 1, Halifax, Nova Scotia, B3S 1B3 at 10:00 am (Atlantic Daylight Time) and at any adjournment thereof (the “Meeting”), for the purposes set forth in the Notice of Meeting. Proxies must be delivered to Computershare Trust Company of Canada (“Computershare”) at the address shown on the envelope not less than 48 hours before the time for holding the Meeting. Only a Shareholder of record at the close of business on January 26, 2026, will, unless that Shareholder has transferred any shares subsequent to that date and the transferee Shareholder establishes ownership to the shares and demands at least ten days before the Meeting that his or her name be included on the list of Shareholders, be entitled to vote at the Meeting.

The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing and shall be executed by the Shareholder or his or her attorney authorized in writing or, if the Shareholder is a corporation, under its corporate seal or by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized.

The persons named in the enclosed Form of Proxy are directors and executive officers of the Corporation. A Shareholder submitting the proxy has the right to appoint a person (who need not be a Shareholder) to represent him or her at the Meeting. To exercise this right, the Shareholder should insert the name of the desired representative in the blank space provided in the Form of Proxy and strike out the other names, or submit another appropriate proxy.

Revocability of Proxy

A Shareholder who has submitted a proxy may revoke it at any time prior to the exercise thereof. If a person who has given a proxy attends personally at the Meeting such person may revoke the proxy and vote in person. In addition to revocation in any other manner permitted by law, a proxy may be revoked by instrument in writing executed by the Shareholder or his or her attorney authorized in writing or, if the Shareholder is a corporation, under its corporate seal or by an officer or attorney thereof duly authorized, and deposited either at the head office of the Corporation at any time up to 4:30 p.m. (Atlantic Daylight Time) the last business day before the day of the Meeting, or with the Chairman of the Meeting on the day of the Meeting, and upon either of such deposits, the proxy is revoked.

Persons Making the Solicitation

This solicitation is made on behalf of the management of the Corporation. The costs incurred in the preparation and mailing of the Form of Proxy, Notice of Meeting and this Management Information Circular and Proxy Statement will be borne by the Corporation. In addition to the use of mail, proxies may be solicited by personal interviews, or by other means of communication or by the directors, officers and employees of the Corporation, who will not be remunerated therefore.

Exercise of Discretion by Proxy

The shares represented by proxies in favour of management nominees will be voted on any poll at the Meeting and where the Shareholder specifies a choice with respect to any matter to be acted upon, the shares will be voted on any poll in accordance with the specification so made.

In the absence of such specification, such shares will be voted in favour of the matters to be acted upon as set out herein. The persons appointed under the Form of Proxy furnished by the Corporation are conferred with discretionary authority with respect to amendments or variations of those matters specified in the Form of Proxy and Notice of Meeting and with respect to any other matters which may properly be brought before the Meeting. In the event that amendments or variations to matters identified in the Notice of Meeting are properly brought before the Meeting, it is the intention of the persons designated in the enclosed Form of Proxy to vote in accordance with their best judgment on such matter or business. At the time of printing this Management Information Circular and Proxy Statement, the management of the Corporation knows of no such amendment, variation, or other matter.

Notice to Beneficial Holders of Securities

The information set forth in this section is of significant importance to many Shareholders, as a substantial number of the Shareholders do not hold their Common Shares in their own name. Shareholders whose names appear on the records of the Corporation as the registered holders of Common Shares are referred to in this Management Information Circular and Proxy Statement as "Registered Shareholders". Shareholders who do not hold their Common Shares in their own name are referred to in this Management Information Circular and Proxy Statement as "Beneficial Shareholders". If Common Shares are listed in an account statement provided to a Shareholder by a broker, then in almost all cases those shares will not be registered in the Shareholder's name on the records of the Corporation. Such shares will more likely be registered under the name of the Shareholder's broker or an agent of that broker. In Canada, the vast majority of such shares are registered under the name of CDS & Co. (The registration name for The Canadian Depository for Securities Limited), which company acts as nominee for many Canadian brokerage firms. Common Shares held by brokers or their nominees can only be voted (for or against resolutions) upon the instructions of the Beneficial Shareholder. Without specific instructions, brokers/nominees are prohibited from voting shares for their clients.

The directors and officers of the Corporation generally do not know for whose benefit the Common Shares registered in the name of CDS & Co. or of other brokers/agents are held. However, Beneficial Shareholders have the option, usually presented by their broker at the time of opening their brokerage account, of allowing their name and address to be disclosed to the issuers of securities which they own. Those who object to their name and address being made known to the issuers of securities which they own (called "Objecting Beneficial Owners") and those who do not object (called "Non-Objecting Beneficial Owners").

These security holder materials are being sent to both registered Shareholders and Beneficial Shareholders. If you are a Beneficial Shareholder and the Corporation or its agent, Computershare, has sent these materials directly to you, your name and address and information about your holdings of securities, have been obtained in accordance with applicable securities regulatory requirements from the intermediary holding on your behalf. By choosing to send these materials to you directly, the Corporation (and not the intermediary holding on your behalf) has assumed responsibility for (i) delivering these materials to you, and (ii) executing your proper voting instructions. Please return your voting instructions as specified in the request for voting instructions.

If you are a Non-Objecting Beneficial Owner, you will be treated as if you are a Registered Shareholder. You will receive a form of proxy from our transfer agent, Computershare. You may attend the Meeting and vote in person or you may appoint another person to represent you as proxyholder to vote your Common Shares at the Meeting. You are encouraged to complete and return the enclosed form of proxy to ensure that your vote is counted should your plans to attend change. When you arrive at the Meeting, please register with the transfer agent, Computershare.

Objecting Beneficial Owners should note that only proxies deposited by Registered Shareholders or Non-Objecting Beneficial Owners can be recognized and acted upon at the Meeting. Objecting Beneficial Owners can only exercise their rights as beneficial owners of Common Shares through the registered holder, which would usually be their broker or other intermediary. Applicable regulatory policy requires brokers and other intermediaries to seek voting instruction from Objecting Beneficial Shareholders in advance of Shareholders' meetings. Every intermediary/broker has its own mailing procedures and provides its own return instructions, which should be carefully followed by Objecting Beneficial Shareholders in order to ensure that their Common Shares are voted at the Meeting. Often the form of proxy supplied to an Objecting Beneficial Shareholder by its broker is identical to the form of proxy provided by the Corporation to the registered Shareholders and Non-Objecting Beneficial Shareholders. However, its purpose is limited to instructing the registered Shareholder how to vote on behalf of the Beneficial Shareholder. The majority of brokers now delegate responsibility for obtaining instruction from clients to Broadridge Financial Solutions Inc. ("Broadridge"). Broadridge typically prepares a machine readable voting instruction form, mails those forms to the Objecting Beneficial Shareholders and asks Objecting Beneficial Shareholders to return the instruction form to Broadridge. Broadridge then tabulates the results of all instructions received and provides appropriate instruction respecting the voting of Common Shares to be represented at the Meeting. An Objecting Beneficial Shareholder receiving a voting instruction form from Broadridge cannot use that proxy to vote Common Shares directly at the Meeting - the form must be returned to Broadridge well in advance of the Meeting in order to have the Common Shares represented by such proxy voted. Alternatively, Objecting Beneficial Shareholders can call Broadridge's toll-free number or access Broadridge's dedicated voting website to deliver their voting instructions.

Generally, an Objecting Beneficial Owner may only attend and vote in person at the Meeting if the Objecting Beneficial Owner is appointed as a proxy holder by the corresponding Registered Shareholder for the shares beneficially owned. If you are an Objecting Beneficial Owner and wish to vote in person at the Meeting, we recommend that you contact your broker or other intermediary well in advance of the Meeting to confirm how you can do so.

Shareholders may also register to receive important shareholder information electronically at www.computershare.com/edelivery and following the signup steps to allow for convenient and timely access to the company's documents.

In the event that prior to the Meeting any vacancies occur in the slate of nominees herein listed, it is intended that discretionary authority shall be exercised by the person named in the proxy as nominee to vote the Common Shares represented by proxy for the election of any other person or persons as directors.

STATEMENT OF EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Discussion and Analysis

Interpretation

Applicable securities legislation defines “executive officer” to mean the Chairman and any Vice-Chairman of the Corporation, where the functions of the office are performed on a full-time basis, the President, any Vice-President in charge of a principal business unit such as sales, finance or production, and an officer of the Corporation or of a subsidiary or any other person who performs a policy-making function in respect of the Corporation, whether or not the individual is also a director of the Corporation or a subsidiary. Executive Officers during all or part of the fiscal year ended July 31, 2025, were the Named Executive Officers, Hermes Chan, Chief Executive Officer and Markus Meile, Chief Financial Officer. Named

Executive Officer (NEO) means the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer (regardless of the amount of compensation of the individual) and the Corporation's most highly compensated executive officer who was serving as an executive officer at the end of the most recently completed financial year whose total compensation was more than $90,000.

MedMira Inc. paid no executive compensation in the year ended July 31, 2025. However, as an operating entity, its wholly-owned subsidiary MedMira Laboratories Inc. paid the Chief Executive Officer a part of the annual compensation, in the amount of $60,000 and paid NIL to the Chief Financial officer during its most recently completed financial year. The number of NEOs of MedMira Laboratories Inc. as at July 31, 2025 was 2.

The compensation structure for the NEOs consists of a base salary and incentive stock options. NEOs base salaries were set in relation to market indicators such as labour market comparisons and compensation mix, taking into consideration the financial means of the Corporation and amounts earned previously. Employee incentive stock options may be awarded according to the Stock Option Plan.

The CEO recommends the base salary and the grant of incentive stock options for NEOs and these recommendations are subject to review and recommendation by the Nomination and Compensation Committee for approval by the Board of Directors. The CEO's compensation is recommended by the Nomination and Compensation Committee and approved by the Board of Directors.

Compensation Governance

The Corporation's process for determining executive compensation is reliant on the judgement of the Board of Directors and is based on the Corporation's financial means and the functions determined by the Board of Directors. Its strategy in setting compensation is to attract and retain key personnel and to motivate performance, personal growth and sustain high morale while enhancing long-term shareholder value.

The Nomination and Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors is responsible for analyzing and approving the compensation for the company's directors and officers and for consideration of the implications of risks associated with the Corporation's compensation policies and practices. Mr. Thomas Bergmann, Mr. Steven Cummings and Mr. Jianhe Mao comprised the Committee in FY2025. Mr. Thomas Bergmann, Mr. Steven Cummings and Mr. Jianhe Mao are independent.

The mandate of the Nomination and Compensation Committee is to seek and select qualified Board Directors and Officers, assess the effectiveness of the Board and its committees, evaluate compensation policies to ensure not to drive behaviors of inappropriate or excessive risk-taking, obtain and analyze comparable Canadian compensation data by industry and company size, including grants under the Corporation's stock option plan.

Share-Based and Option-Based Awards

The Corporation does not offer share-based awards to executive officers but has established the Stock Option Plan to assist directors, officers, employees and consultants of the Corporation and any subsidiary to participate in the growth and development of the Corporation and its subsidiaries by providing such persons with an opportunity, through share options, to acquire an increased proprietary interest in the Corporation that will be aligned with the interests of the Shareholders of the Corporation. The Stock Option Plan provides that options may be granted in respect of authorized and unissued Common Shares,

Markus Meile CFO	2025	60,000	0	0	0	0	0	0	60,000

Notes:

- (1) The Company makes certain estimates and assumptions when calculating the fair value of option-based awards. The Company uses an option pricing model which includes significant assumptions including estimates of the expected volatility, expected life, expected dividend rate and expected risk-free rate of return. Changes in these assumptions may result in a material change to the amount recorded for the issuance of stock options.

Outstanding Share-Based and Option-Based Awards

The Corporation has no Long Term Incentive Plans, other than stock options granted from time to time by the Board of Directors under the provisions of the Corporation's Stock Option Plan. There were no incentive stock options outstanding to NEOs as at the year ended July 31, 2025. No awards have been transferred at values other than fair market value.

No SARs were granted the fiscal year ended July 31, 2025. No option or SAR repricing occurred in this period nor were any options granted or vested.

Pension Plan Benefits

The Corporation has no pension or deferred compensation plans.

The Corporation has entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Hermes Chan, Chief Executive Officer. Under the terms of this employment agreement, Mr. Chan is entitled to an annual base salary and grant of stock options (if approved by the Board), participation in benefit plans, and reimbursement of reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred in performing his duties as an officer of the Corporation. The employment agreement contains confidentiality and non-competition provisions and termination arrangements. Under the terms of this agreement, Mr. Meile is entitled to an annual base salary and grant of stock options (if approved by the Board), reimbursement for health benefits and reasonable out of pocket expenses incurred in performing his duties as an executive of the Corporation. The Corporation has no compensatory plan or arrangement with any NEO that will result in payments to any NEO resulting from the resignation, retirement or any other termination of employment of the officer's employment with the Corporation and its subsidiaries or from a change of control of the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation or a change in the NEO's responsibilities following a change-in-control, except as disclosed in the preceding paragraphs.

Compensation of Directors
